ORDER CLOSING CASE

THIS CAUSE comes before the Court upon the Parties' Joint Stipulation for Voluntary Dismissal with Prejudice of All Claims, filed on June 1, 2023. (DE 60). The Court congratulates the Parties on their amicable resolution of this matter and notes that pursuant to Anago Franchising, Inc. v. Shaz, LLC, 677 F.3d 1272 (11th Cir. 2012), the Parties' Stipulation is self-executing and no Order of the Court is required to dismiss this action. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED and ADJUDGED that the Clerk of Court shall CLOSE this CASE and DENY all pending motions AS MOOT.

SIGNED in Chambers in West Palm Beach, Florida, this 2nd day of June, 2023.

Donald M. Middlebrooks
United States District Judge

Statement of Michael Chavez and Ridge Point Capital, LLC

On September 19, 2022, Ridge Point Capital, LLC ("RPC") filed a lawsuit against Miroslav Zecevic and others alleging, among other claims, that Mr. Zecevic engaged in fraud and breached a contract with RPC concerning the placement of shares of a penny stock for deposit and/or sale with a broker or other buyer. Mr. Zecevic and the other defendants denied all of the allegations of wrongdoing asserted in the lawsuit.

During the course of the lawsuit, and after an exchange of documents and extensive communications through the parties' lawyers, RPC and I have concluded that neither Mr. Zecevic, nor the other defendants in the lawsuit, engaged in any fraudulent conduct or made any misrepresentations whatsoever toward me or RPC. Consequently, the lawsuit has been amicably resolved and dismissed in its entirety against all defendants with prejudice. RPC and I wish Mr. Zecevic and the other defendants well in the future.

Michael Chavez, individually and as
Managing Member of Ridge Point Capital, LLC
