Re: Fuse Science, Inc – Demand for Retraction, Cease and Desist

Dear Sirs:

This firm represents Peter D. Downey, Court-appointed Receiver of Fuse Science, Inc., a Nevada corporation (“Fuse”). The Receiver was appointed by the Nevada Eighth District Court, Clark County, Nevada, in the case Mina Mar et al v. Fuse Science et al, Case No. A-25-912525-C. On June 7, 2026, a receiver was reported in this case because Fuse had not paid a $643,471 judgment (the “Judgment”) that had been entered against Fuse on December 18, 2025.

We are writing to you in the capacity of former management of Fuse, under whose leadership the Judgment was not paid. We know you are well aware of the entry of Judgment and Receivership, as the Fuse quarterly reports posted on OTCMarkets for the quarters ended December 31, 2025, March 31, 2026 and June 30, 2026 all refer to the Judgment, as well as the Receivership in the most recent report.

The Receivership Order grants the Receiver broad powers over the assets and operations of Fuse, as well as the power to take possession of the accounts with OTCMarkets and the stock transfer agent. On July 9, 2026, the Receiver filed the Fuse Annual List naming the Receiver and his staff as interim officers and directors to carry out his duties under the Receivership Order and Nevada Law.

We have been made aware that, on August 14, 2026, you put out a misleading press release (the "Press Release") concerning the Judgment and Receivership, which implied that there was some basis of appeal. In fact, the deadline to appeal passed in January, 2026. Even the six-month deadline to request reopening of the Judgment under Nevada Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b) has now passed.

You also apparently filed an annual list (the "Annual List") with the Nevada Secretary of State on on August 15, 2026 which removed the Receiver and staff as officers and directors and substituted yourselves.

The Judgment is final and must be paid. The Receiver will be liquidating Fuse assets, including the Fuse corporate entity, to pay the Judgment. Your recent actions are made with obvious intent to frustrate the Receiver and flout the Court's Receivership Order.

The Receiver is empowered by the Receivership Order to bring litigation on behalf of FUSE. This could include claims against both of you for damages suffered by Fuse caused by your improper actions. We can also seek emergency relief from the Court.

You are hereby notified to retract the Press Release and the Annual List within 48 hours of this letter and to CEASE AND DESIST from purporting to take any action or inaction on behalf of Fuse, including but not limited to taking any action purporting to affect Fuse's assets, liabilities, shares or business.

Very Truly Yours,
BAUMAN LAW FIRM
